- 2.5 In the event of a disputed bid, the auctioneer is the sole arbitrator of the successful bidder or the auctioneer may decide to put the lot up again.
- 2.6 The auctioneer may refuse to accept a bid which, in the auctioneer’s opinion, is not in the best interests of the vendor and need not give reasons for doing so.

- 2.8 The successful bidder at the auction sale must give to the auctioneer at the fall of the hammer the purchaser’s name or the bid card number which identifies the purchaser, or the name of the person on whose behalf the successful bid was made.
- 2.9 As soon as practicable after the fall of the hammer, the buyer shall if requested by the agent, sign the agreement for sale.

If upon such resale a lower price is obtained for any Lot than was obtained at the first sale, the difference in price shall be a debt due by the Purchaser in default at the first bidding to the Vendor and recoverable from the first Purchaser as such. If upon such resale the price obtained for such Lot is in excess of the price obtained on the first sale, then that first Purchaser shall have no interest in such excess or any part of the price obtained on the resale.

- 5.5 Where a person who makes the highest bid is acting on behalf of a third party or principal, the person actually making the bid is and remains liable for payment in accordance with the Conditions of Sale, whether or not the Auctioneer acknowledges the principal and whether or not the Auctioneer subsequently looks to the principal for payment.
- 5.6 In the event that the Auctioneer accounts to the Vendor for the purchase price before the purchase price and any other monies in respect of the sale have been paid by the Purchaser, title to the Lot shall be transferred to the Auctioneer until it has received all monies payable by the Purchaser in connection with the sale.

6. Disputes and Waivers

- 6.1 The name of the Vendor as given by the Vendor is set out in the catalogue. In the case of any dispute, the remedy of the purchase is against the Vendor only. In no case and under no circumstances is the remedy against the Auctioneer who is the agent for the Vendor.
- 6.2 The rights and remedies of the Auctioneer under these conditions shall not be affected by reason of the selling commission and charges of the Auctioneer having been deducted by the Auctioneer in any payment made by the Auctioneer to the Vendor and as between the Purchaser and the Auctioneer the Purchaser waives all rights of set off, if any, as between the Purchaser and the Vendor.

7. Goods & Services Tax (GST)

Purchasers Please Note:

- 10.2 Purchasers requiring credit from the Auctioneer shall make application therefore NOT LATER than Friday 14th October 2016. 11. Delivery

The Auctioneer reserves the right to require a Purchaser to whom delivery of a Lot is made prior to the payment of the purchase price in full, to effect insurance prior to delivery satisfactory to the Auctioneer in respect of damage, injury or death of the Lot from any cause whatsoever and to ensure that the policy of insurance bears an endorsement noting the Auctioneer's and Vendor's interest in the Lot, such insurance to be maintained until the purchase price is paid in full.

13.3 The Auctioneer may deliver a Lot against a Purchaser's cheque but shall not be accountable to the Vendor if that cheque is not met notwithstanding any negligence on the Auctioneer's part.

14. Vendors Agreement
